6. Principles

6.1 Roles and Functions of a Local Authority

The Local Authority shall be a voluntary group that provides advice and recommendation to RGRC on their communities' issues. Recommendations made at Local Authority meetings are not 'final' decisions as Council needs to decide on all issues or requests from all communities.

The functions of a Local Authority include:

- to involve local communities more closely in issues related to local government;
- to ensure that local communities are given an opportunity to express their opinions on questions affecting local government;
- to allow local communities a voice in the formulation of policies for the locality as well as policies for the area and the region;

LA001 – Local Authority Policy

- to take the views of local communities back to council and act as advocates on their behalf;
- to take Council information and decisions back to the community;
- to contribute to the development of the relevant regional management plan and the relevant municipal or council plan;
- to provide a representative of the Local Authority for employment selection advisory panels in relation to managerial positions in the Local Authority area.

6.2 Membership

6.2.1 Membership size

The size of the Local Authority should reflect the community size and structure representing key groups in the community. The membership of Local Authority will include community members, Ward Councillors and Mayor of the RGRC. The number of community members that a Local Authority should have is a minimum of six (6) and up to a maximum of fourteen (14).

People nominated for Local Authority membership are to be approved by the Council at the next Ordinary Meeting of Council.

6.2.2 Period of Membership

Local Authority members will be appointed for the term of Council, (4 years). Once the new Council is elected, Council will call for new nominations. The previous members will be eligible to apply for new Local Authority membership.

6.2.3 Eligibility for Membership

Community residents over 18 years who live in the Ward, for the majority of the time, can nominate or be nominated for Local Authority member except that two members of a Local Authority maybe under the age of 18 years. To become a Local Authority member the candidate needs to fill in a Local Authority nomination form. The completed nomination form can be handed directly to Council Service Manager (CSM) or tended at the next Local Authority meeting. The nomination form will then be given to the Governance Department and will be submitted to the Council for Council to deliberate on at the Ordinary Meeting of the Council.

Council will have the final say on Local Authority membership.

6.2.4 Membership termination

Local Authority members stop being members if they;

- resign in writing

LA001 – Local Authority Policy

- pass away
- do not attend 2 consecutive meetings without an apology
- finish their 4-year term
- commit a serious offence or are sent to prison for 1 year (Council can use its discretion)
- are dismissed by Council

6.2.5 No Proxies

A member of a Local Authority may not be represented by a proxy (substitute) during a meeting or provisional meeting.[Section 12.0, Guideline 8]

6.3.1 When reporting to and from the Local Authority:

- Local Authority members will advise on strategic, not operational matters (operational matters are the responsibility of Council Officers),

- During a provisional meeting, all agenda items may be discussed and minutes must be kept.[Section 13.2, Guideline 8]
- Members at the provisional meeting may, by majority vote, make recommendations to the regional council, including Local Authority projects, provided any such recommendation is specifically qualified as being a recommendation of a provisional meeting, rather than the Local Authority.[Section 13.3, Guideline 8]
- A provisional meeting may not approve the minutes of a Local Authority meeting but a Local Authority may approve the minutes of a provisional meeting.[Section 13.4, Guideline 8]
